*M*y wife Phyllis and I were introduced to Salt Spring Island by our dear friends Don & Judith Cockrill, some years ago.

This included an introduction to the volunteer Hospice work they were doing then (and are still engaged in) and what a great deal of satisfaction they were taking from it.

Before Phyllis left us (Nov. 26, 2018), she reminded me of the commitment we had made to one another to help the Salt Spring Hospice, and the great group of volunteers they have. I am delighted that as donors, we were able to fulfill that oath.
